Editor's notes

The Brighton Marathon Weekend is an all-embracing three-day running event in one of Britain's most cosmopolitan cities, comprising an Exhibition, Mini Mile Races and culminating on Sunday in a 10km before the main event, the marathon, plays out before massed crowds on Brighton's sea front. This is an event for the whole family with something for everyone of all ages and abilities!

Since its inauguration in 2010, the Marathon has dramatically developed with course bests for the men and women well under 2hrs10min and 2:29, making it the second fastest marathon in the UK.

We are expecting 2016 to be a record-breaking year with more people running and spectating than ever before.
